

HOUSEHOLD CARES

Tax the Women of Norwich the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties with a constantly aching back. A woman shouldn't have a bad back. And she seldom would if the kidneys were well.

Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by thousands.

Have been used in kidney trouble over 50 years.

Read what this Norwich woman says:

"Mrs. R. Ladd, 422 Central Avenue, says: 'There was a dull, tired feeling in my back across my kidneys and when I was doing my housework, my back ached and felt numb. Stopping caused pains across my back and my back was so weak I often had to sit down to rest. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills corrected the trouble.'

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ladd had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Reduced Prices on Men's Furnishings.

The promise of lower prices in the future and the fact that we have a large stock on hand are the reasons for this 10 per cent. reduction on

HATS—CAPS—SHIRTS—COLLARS—NECKWEAR—UNDERWEAR—HOSE—SWEATERS—PAJAMAS—NIGHT SHIRTS—GLOVES—AND MEN'S DRESS AND WORK TROUSERS AND OVERALLS AT 10 PER CENT. OFF.

Murphy & McGarry
207 Main Street

Selmer
P. N. CASH, Agent
Norwich Conn.

THE L. VIDA ELECTRIC VIBRATOR
$7.50.
Guaranteed in every respect. Let us demonstrate this vibrator and prove to you that it is an excellent appliance. GAS AND ELECTRIC SHOP, 2 Canal St.

WESTERN LIGHT AND POWER CO.
THE MISTIC POWER COMPANY,
5 East Main St., Mistic, Conn.

TO NEW YORK
New London (Norwich) Line.
Enjoy this delightful overnight trip down the Sound and reach your destination refreshed and satisfied. Excellent service throughout.

Leave New London daily except Sunday.
Leave New York daily except Sunday.
Time, 10:00 a. m. Daylight Saving Time, 11:00 p. m. State rooms ready at 7:00 p. m.

THE NEW ENGLAND STEAMSHIP COMPANY

RIGHT WORK—RIGHT PRICE
RIGHT ON TIME
We Specialize On
NEOLIN SOLES AND HEELS
Goodyear Shoe Repairing Co.
86 Franklin Street
NINO DI PALMA, Prop.

Shea's News Bureau
Magazine Specialist
Union Square

NOTICE
Happened Cars will not be reduced in price for the present. Any drop before April 1, 1921 will be refunded to future purchasers.
G. T. FENDELTON,
HUFFORD AGENCY,
USED CARS FOR SALE

NORWICH WOMEN ON STATE
Y. M. C. A. COMMITTEE

The Connecticut Y. M. C. A. women's auxiliaries held their 34th annual conference at New Haven Friday. The following officers were chosen: State chairman, Mrs. W. H. Hoffman, Waterbury; vice chairman, Mrs. H. P. Carter, Ansonia; recording secretary, Mrs. W. S. Mayfield, Derby; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. B. Fenner, New Haven; treasurer, Mrs. P. H. Shepard, New Haven. The executive committee included Mrs. Elsie Warner, Norwich, and Mrs. Edwin Hill, Norwich.

One More Week of Daylight Saving
Norwich has one more week of daylight saving time as the clocks are to be turned back on as it returns to standard time next Sunday night.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, Oct. 23, 1920.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 6:27 this evening. Senator Borah speaks at Davis theatre next Monday night. There are 128 patients at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

Get your Y. M. C. A. course tickets at the Y. M. C. A. Barrows—adv.

Tomorrow, the 24th day of October will be good literature day in eighteen thousand Methodist churches.

Some of the Norwich stores are unpacking Christmas stock, which is arriving more promptly than of late years.

Big open rally with Senator Borah speaking at Davis theatre, Monday night, Oct. 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Pratt of Hartford were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rindge of North Ashford.

The state police have been rounding up automobiles, where in one case, at Farmington, were fined $100 each in the town court.

At Kiteman orchards, Frank W. Browning has harvested a good crop of apples from his seven or eight hundred trees.

The Y. M. C. A. course opens at Community House, Oct. 27. Tickets $1.50—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Gardner of Mystic have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jessie E., to William H. Kennedy of Old Mystic.

It is estimated that none of the No-nak lobstersmen will clear less than $500 or $600 through October. Some of the lucky ones will make more than that.

"Herb" Smith's orchestra at State Armory, Willimantic, Saturday, Oct. 23rd—adv.

A local merchant gets the tip from New York that the storage in cotton and other goods is spreading, so that buyers now will get ahead of the advanced prices sure to come.

At the last minute Thursday, a sudden attack of illness experienced by Mr. Steiner compelled Mr. and Mrs. John Steiner, and family to defer starting for Denver.

Order your chrysanthemums from the Maplewood Nursery Co. Orders delivered—adv.

Richard R. Norman of Norwich has been appointed administrator of the estate of Mrs. Martha Norman, who died suddenly at her home in Leyland, in August last.

So many farmers are making cider this fall that there is a great scarcity of older barrels, which in some Connecticut towns are selling from five to twelve dollars each.

Ladies' Durham stockings—10c a pair. Enuf said. J. Wechsler, 81-87 Franklin street—adv.

Comptroller of School Superintendent and Mrs. L. C. Staples of Ellington, was taken to the Hospital of Ellington Wednesday morning for an operation for appendicitis.

The state board of accountancy will hold its semi-annual examinations at the capitol November 16 and 17 and from the applications on file the class will be the largest one qualified.

Rev. Dr. Samuel R. Collier, dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Hartford, has announced that the next general convention of the Episcopal church will be at Portland, Ore., in October, 1921.

Hear the truth on the presidential campaign from Senator Borah at Davis theatre—adv.

At Mystic the members of Stinging lodge, No. 26, I. O. O. F., are planning to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the lodge on December 15. The lodge was instituted December 12, 1845.

It is noted by the Norwich Journal that Willie, the young son of Felix Bedard, who was operated on Monday last week at the hospital in Boston, is recovering and will soon be home.

Postmaster John P. Murphy has had replaced the convenient letter box on the pole near the Old library, which takes the mail to the post office in Sunday evening's automobile run.

Choice flowers for funerals; also wedding bouquets. J. Hunt's Greenhouses, Phone 1130—adv.

The public notice for children at the United Workers' House this week, Miss Oliver, Miss McKenna and Miss Maher had 22 to examine Health Officer E. J. Brophy conducting the clinic as usual.

W. E. Kelly, mayor the republican nominee for Governor, is expected to win. He is recovering and will soon be home.

We give you quality because we want your trade. Enuf said. J. Wechsler, 81-87 Franklin street—adv.

President Benjamin T. Marshall of the Connecticut College for Women at New London, was the principal speaker at the twenty-sixth annual conference of the Y. M. C. A. auxiliaries of Connecticut, held in New Haven.

PERSONALS

George L. Wilcox of Noank has been a business caller in Norwich.

Mrs. Charles Dearborn of Central Village, has been in Norwich a few weeks.

Mrs. Anna K. Pendleton has returned to Stoughton after a visit with friends in Norwich.

Mrs. James Parkhurst and daughter, Miss Ethel Parkhurst, of Moosic, visited relatives in Old Lyme early in the week.

Curtis Place of Danielson and his cousin, Elmer Burbank, from Norwich, called on Mrs. George Horace Burdick at the Y. M. C. A. Barrows—adv.

Mrs. Nellie Bray of Broadway, has returned from Bridgeport after attending the annual mass of her cousin, Rev. Thomas J. Kelly.

Miss Dorothy Gardner and Miss Chandler, nurses in training at the Backus hospital in Norwich and Miss Mildred Boyle of Moosic, were recent visitors at Dr. James L. Gardner's in Central Village.

WEDDINGS.
Leary—Mullen. Miss Ethel J. Mullen, daughter of Thomas Mullen of Norwich Town, and Charles E. Leary of New London, were united in marriage Wednesday morning by the Rev. William O'Brien at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Baltic.

Rev. Fr. O'Brien was the officiating priest. The ceremony was held at 10 o'clock. The church was festively decorated and the bride and groom were accompanied by a large party of friends.

The bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed with mole skin with hat to match. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Anna M. Leary, who wore a gown of white satin with hat to match.

A brother of the groom, Timothy J. Leary, was best man. After the ceremony the bride and groom motored to New London where a wedding breakfast was served at the Mohican. Mr. and Mrs. Leary left early in the afternoon for Niagara Falls by way of New York.

Both are well known in this city. The bride being a graduate of Windham High and William M. State Normal schools, and has since been teaching in Sterling and Baltic. The bridegroom attended the Norwich Free Academy and served as lieutenant in the army during the war. Since then he has been employed as a salesman at the Groton Iron Works but now is in business in New London.

Adams—Harrold. In Hanover on Wednesday John Nelson Adams and Miss Dorothy Harrold, both of Hanover, were united in marriage by Rev. H. D. Rollason at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Harrold. As the bride party entered the parlor Mrs. Lillian Standish played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The best man was Norman S. Standish of New York and the bridesmaid was Miss Winifred Harrold, a sister of the bride. Miss Elizabeth Adams was flower girl.

The bride was given in white satin wearing a veil caught with orange blossoms and carried white chrysanthemums. Her maid wore a gown of white satin and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace and to his best man he gave a gold watch. The bride's gift to the groom was a gold ring in which an amethyst was set.

Following the ceremony a reception was held after which Mr. and Mrs. Adams left for a wedding trip to Boston, New York and Niagara Falls. They will reside in Hanover on their return.

The groom is a teacher in the business in Baltic and his bride has been a school teacher at Hanover.

FUNERALS. Mrs. Mary E. Brown, wife of John Brown of Bristol, Conn., died at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Smith of Norwich, Conn., October 18, 1920. The funeral services were held at All Hallows' church, Moosic, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Joseph McCarthy, pastor, assisted by Rev. John Mathew, deacon, and Rev. Joseph Connelley, organist. The burial was in the cemetery at Bristol.

Mrs. Mary E. Brown was born in Ireland about 50 years ago and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan. She came to this country when a young woman and located in Norwich, having made her home here since. In June, 1900, she was united in marriage in St. Patrick's church with Joseph Brown, a native of Ireland. They have two sons, Michael and Jerome Shea, and a daughter, Miss Mary Shea, now of Newark, N. J.

OBITUARY. Mrs. Jeremiah Shea. The death of Nellie Sullivan, wife of Jeremiah Shea, occurred at her home, No. 69 Mountain street, about 11:15 a. m. Tuesday, October 20, 1920. Mrs. Shea had been ill for some weeks past and recently underwent an operation.

She was born in Ireland about 50 years ago and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan. She came to this country when a young woman and located in Norwich, having made her home here since. In June, 1900, she was united in marriage in St. Patrick's church with Jeremiah Shea, a native of Ireland. They have two sons, Michael and Jerome Shea, and a daughter, Miss Mary Shea, now of Newark, N. J.

Mrs. Shea also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Cornelius Kane of Fitchville, Mrs. Patrick Hickey of Warren, Mass., and Mrs. James Stanton of Springfield, Mass., and four brothers, Timothy Sullivan of Quincy, Mass., Jeremiah Sullivan of West Warren, Mass., and Dennis and Michael C. Sullivan of this city.

Mrs. Shea was a devoted wife and mother and was beloved by all.

Silas B. Jacobs. Word has been received by Mrs. Charles W. Gale of the sudden death of Silas B. Jacobs, a former resident of Norwich in Pomona, Cal., at the house of his son, Fred G. Jacobs, on Monday, Oct. 18. Mr. Jacobs was born in Thompson, Conn., on November 18, 1846. He was the late Joseph D. and Sarah C. Jacobs. His early life was spent in his home town, later graduating from the Norwich Free Academy in the senior class. After leaving home he went to Haverville, Mass., with his brother, Henry, where he conducted a clothing business.

About 50 years ago he was united in marriage in Norwich with Miss Ella I. Gale, a sister of the late Col. Charles W. Gale. From Haverville he went to Denver where he engaged in the real estate business, later going to Los Angeles, where he has since lived, conducting a real estate business there.

Mr. Jacobs is survived by his wife, two sons, Fred C. of Pomona and two daughters, Mrs. Arthur B. Stark and Mrs. L. Peters, both of Denver. He also leaves a nephew, James L. Case of this city, and two cousins, Adams C. Carroll and George W. Carroll, all of this city.

Hannah L. Condon. Mrs. Hannah L. Condon died Wednesday at her home, No. 31 Williams street, New London, death ensuing from illness of heart trouble. She was about 72 years of age and the widow of Edward Condon. Mrs. Condon is survived by one son, David, of New London, and by two daughters, Mrs. Mary of New London and Mrs. D. F. Sullivan of Norwich. A sister, Miss Ellen Lawley, of New London, also survives.

EVERY STANTON ELECTED
AT OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE. The 21st Connecticut older boys' conference opened at Hartford Friday with 170 delegates present. Officers were elected as follows: President, James Taylor; first vice president, Ralph Matteson, New London; second vice president, Avery Stanton, Norwich; secretary, Lionel Moore, Torrington.

British interests are preparing to send a mission growing in Brazil.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER; MRS. KENYON IS SENTENCED TO FROM 10 TO 15 YEARS

GUILTY of manslaughter was the jury's verdict Friday morning in the case of Mrs. Mabel Kenyon of Stonington who has been on trial in the superior court here for first degree murder in shooting Dr. Herbert Taylor on June 11th, last, at the doctor's apartments, 141 West Broad street, in the Pawtucket section of Stonington.

The verdict was returned at 12:55 p. m. Shortly after 2 o'clock Mrs. Kenyon was sentenced by Judge George E. Hinman to not less than 10 nor more than 15 years state prison and, in less than an hour from the time she was sentenced she was on her way to Wethersfield in the automobile of Sheriff Bidwell.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

The jury was out for an hour and 35 minutes and the moment when they returned to announce their verdict was a dramatic one. The spectators' seats and the center aisle between the crowded, nearly 100 of those present being young women in their twenties or under, half a dozen reporters, including many from New York and Boston papers, sat expectantly at the table in front of the judge's bench, the attorneys were in the rear of the courtroom.

SHORE LINE DEFICIT

SHOWING SOME DECREASE

Passenger revenue of the Shore Line Electric Railway Co. was $26,119.17 in August and $26,268.82 in September, while the deficit in the operating account was reduced from $47,648.21 to $46,784.48 between August 31 and September 30, according to the reports of Receiver Robert W. Perkins filed Friday at the office of Judge George E. Parsons, clerk of the superior court.

The report of operations to August 31, was as follows:

Receipts.
Cash on hand Aug. 31, $35,696.77
Passenger revenue, $26,119.17
Accts. receivable, $1,177.15
Miscellaneous, 273.84
Total receipts, $113,176.93

Cash Disbursements.
Pay rolls, $10,924.99
Compensation, 174.21
Material and supplies, 2,584.85
Accts. payable reduced, 14,004.63
Freight and express, 267.15
Liquidation account, 3,024.91
New bills, 3,477.15
Miscellaneous, 11,204.45
Total disbursements, $55,657.37

Cash on hand Sept. 1, $71,519.56
Operations to Sept. 30, 1920.
Cash receipts in Sept., $27,519.56
Passenger revenue, $26,268.82
Accts. receivable, 1,702.84
Miscellaneous, 15.90
Total receipts, $113,028.45

Cash Disbursements.
Payrolls, $10,917.19
Compensation, 174.21
Material and supplies, 1,535.23
Accts. payable reduced, 1,584.85
Freight and express, 267.15
Liquidation, 12,002.72
U. S. Gov. tax on transportation, 256.72
Miscellaneous, 4,664.54
Total cash disbursements, $40,721.27

Cash balance Oct. 1, $90,108.16
Statement of assets and liabilities resulting from operations for twelve months ending Sept. 30, 1920:

Operating Expenses.
Cash, $9,108.16
Accounts receivable, 26,636.24
Rentals and premium paid, 8,144.48
In advance, 5,534.85
Other unadjusted, 5,534.85
Suspense, 45.14
Deficit, 46,784.48
Total, $177,578.25

Operating Liabilities.
Accounts payable, $24,067.86
Insurance and casualty re-serve, 9,922.45
Other current liabilities, 2,587.87
Tax liability, 14,141.79
Inventory reduced, 41,287.94
Liquidation account balance, 55,858.56
Total, $177,578.25

The deficits totalling $46,784.48 are reported as follows: October $4,405.87; November $9,353.34; December $2,405.87; January $9,353.34; February $2,405.87; March $2,405.87; April $2,405.87; May $2,405.87; June $2,405.87; July $2,405.87; August $2,405.87; September $2,405.87.

OLDER GIRLS ARRIVE FOR STATE CONFERENCE HERE. Nearly 250 girls representing Sunday schools in many cities and towns of Connecticut are in Norwich for the third annual older girls conference, which opened Friday at the Community House of the United Congregational Church. The Connecticut school Association and the Young Women's Christian Association of the state are cooperating in the conference which will continue through Sunday afternoon.

Friday was registration and "Get Acquainted" day for the young people who began to arrive soon after noon. Miss Doris Ballard of Norwich, chairman of the registration committee, met the girls at the registration committee in a busy afternoon and evening taking the registration cards of the delegates as they arrived at the entrance to the Community House and an equally busy afternoon and evening was put in by Miss Esther Pallen of Norwich, who is chairman of the entertainment committee, which is looking after the social life of the girls with Norwich families while they are attending the conference.